

Glossary for Forgiveness Unit

aesthetics (es-THET-iks) noun: the visual aspect, beauty or appearance of a creation alternating (ALL-tur-nay-ting) adj: two or more things occurring repeatedly, one at a time conscience (KON-chens) noun: an inner knowing of right versus wrong choices denouement (day-NOO-ment) noun: an ending or outcome engineering (en-je-NEER-ing) (noun): the branch of science that deals with designing new structures linguistic (leen-GWIS-tik) adj: relating to the learning and speaking of languages makeshift (MAKE-shift) adj.: Put together without a plan or design prototype (PRO-to-typ) noun: a first model from which other copies are made vibrating (VI-bray-ting) verb: moving rapidly back and forth transverse: (trans-VERS) adj: extending across something