Love Glossary

allergic (adjective) uh-LUR-jik allergic: a body's reaction to a harmless food, plant or substance when the immune system thinks it is harmful.

compassionate (adjective) kum-PA-shun-nut compassionate: showing caring feelings or concern for others culture (noun) KUL-cher culture: the social habits, music, and art of a group of people custom (noun) KUS-tum custom: a way of doing something specific to a group of people or a certain time period depleted (adjective) de-PLEET-ed depleted: used up the supply of design (noun) de-ZINE design: a drawing to show how something is made or how it works diverse (adjective) de-VERSE diverse: showing many different kinds fables (noun) FA-buls fables: stories usually featuring animals to tell a story about how to live gullies (noun) GU-leez gullies: water-worn, narrow canyons habitat (noun) HA-bi-tat habitat: the natural home of an organism indigenous (adjective) in-DI-je-nus indigenous: native to a place inhabit (verb) in-HA-bit inhabit: occupy or live in intuition (noun) in-too-I-shun intuition: inner knowing landscape (noun) LAND-scape landscape: the view of the land from a distance manufactured (adjective) man-yoo-FAK-shurd manufactured: assembled from a combination of parts native tongue (noun) NA-tiv TUNG native tongue: the language first spoken in one's homeland predators (noun) PRED-a-ters predators: the creatures who hunt another creature regional (adjective) REE-ju-nul regional: relating to a particular place or part of the world striving (verb) STY-ving striving: trying hard sympathetic (adjective) sym-pu-THET-ik sympathetic: feeling sadness about someone else's pain tolerant (adjective) TALL-er-unt tolerant: accepting of others topographical (adjective) top-o-GRAF-i-kul topographical: related to the land forms or features on a map, such as mountains, valleys and bodies of water tortoise (noun) TOR-tus tortoise: a reptile with a shell; a turtle universal (adjective) you-ni-VER-sul universal: relating to all